Inland and Southern Regions:

Kern County –

- Has submitted a proclamation due to hazardous conditions created by a series of wide spread, slow moving thunderstorms throughout the County. Authorities are currently utilizing law enforcement and fire helicopters to perform several hoist rescues including 3 Firefighters from their engine that became inundated by flood waters.
- Kern County has two active shelters: Frazier Mountain Park Elementary School (Frazier Park area) and Jacobsen Middle School (Tehachapi area), with a third set up and ready for activation as needed (United Methodist Church in Kernville). Widespread mud/debris and water flow impacting numerous roads and highways. Reports of residents stranded on rooftops in the Walker Basin area. Other areas heavily impacted include the Grapevine and Tehachapi.
- Approximately 20 firefighters and their fire apparatus are having to spend the night in the Tejon Ranch area after becoming isolated by floodwaters while they were extinguishing an earlier wildfire.

Los Angeles County –

- Los Angeles County, per the Los Angeles County OEM Duty Officer, they have nothing to report at this time.
- LA has reached out to the Sheriff's Department, cities in the burn areas, flash flood areas and has nothing to report. The Duty Officer is monitoring the situation.
- Los Angeles Public Works people are in the field ready to address issues that may arise. La Canada area has minor flooding with one home with significant water damage.
- Lancaster area has three homes needing sandbagging and water diversion, minor damage. Currently working an incident in the Glendale Mountain/East fork area, 2 persons stranded due to road washout at Camp Williams (non-rescue).

Orange County –

- On July 19, 2015 at approximately 1922 hours, the Southern Region Duty Officer was notified the Orange County Emergency Management Division activated their EOC at 1950 hours -Level I due to Flash Flood Warnings for the Silverado Burn Scar Area.
- The SDO contacted the Orange County Duty Officer and was informed about debris flow in the burn scar area - Silverado Canyon. Silverado Canyon Road is closed. The Silverado Community Center opened to serve as a Reception Center for residents who will not be able to make it home due to the road closure.
- There were no evacuation orders.
- There were no emergency management related unmet needs at the time. The SDO continued to monitor the situation.
- At approximately 2200 hours, the OA deactivated their EOC and the reception center was closed. Orange County EOC staff confirmed that Silverado Road is open to residents only and status in the Canyon had been stabilized.
- Work crews will continue the clean-up efforts through the night and this morning.

Inland and Southern Regions:

Riverside County –

- Per the Territory Representative, Riverside County has the I-10 Bridge collapse as well as other flooding in the OA.
- They are polling their cities this morning to report any damages as a result of the rains/flooding.
- The I-10 is closed at Desert City impacting the route to Arizona.
- No unmet emergency management related needs at this time.

San Luis Obispo County –

- PG&E previously reported there were 221 power outages affecting almost 13,000 customers, with some areas having prolonged outages. This caused some retail stores to close due to lack of power, a number of local radio stations seemed to be off the air at one point or another, traffic lights were out including key intersections on California Highway 1 between San Luis Obispo and Morro Bay, but also countywide.
- There were many road and intersections flooded. Flood waters and mud had covered some roads causing problems. There were a number of mud issues on roads in downtown Paso Robles, with some mud getting into a small portion of the Paso Robles Event Center (fairgrounds) just as preparations are under way for the opening of the California Mid-State Fair on July 22. Clean up efforts are under way or complete at these and other locations, including a Union Pacific railroad crossing in Paso Robles. County Roads crews and Caltrans were out all over the county today. Record breaking rainfall amounts are reported to have occurred, with the highest for the storm being 3.55" at a location in Paso Robles. San Luis Obispo County Airport received .83", Camp San Luis 1.06", an area west of Atascadero received 1.42" Diablo Canyon 1.03", Templeton 1.93", and Cambria 1.34" Overall, the totals within San Luis Obispo County ranged from a low of .2" to the high of 3.55". County OES remained and does remain on duty officer status.

Santa Barbara County

- Per the Territory Representative, Pipeline Rupture – the facility impacted is Russell Ranch located at 8702 Hwy 166, which is located in both San Luis Obispo (SLO) County and Santa Barbara County. Pipeline impacted is on the SLO side. Cal OES SPILL # 15-4131-the California State Warning Center conducted all appropriate notifications, including but not limited to local government agencies.
- Damage due to flooding, mud and rocks have made it difficult to access the source.
- The facility was shut in. Station 41 is there currently and trying to get an estimate on the quantity and worst-case scenario. Product release is oil and now mixed with water.
- Estimate 100-300 yards from the river. Hwy 166 is closed (due to weather and mudslides) from Hwy 101. One could get through Hwy 33 if needed.
- The OA has also provided storm damage information in CalEOC under daily operations.
- No known unmet emergency management related needs at this time.

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

- SOC / Inland REOC remains activated in support of 2014 Drought
- A drought continuance proclamation was received from the City of Live Oak.
- A drought continuance proclamation was received from Modoc County.

Weather of Concern

- Widespread Flash Flood Watches throughout the Western Sierra slopes down through Central and Southern California have been issued.
- Remnant moisture from former Hurricane Dolores is spreading into North California today through Tuesday. This will bring showers and thunderstorms over the mountains and potentially even into the Valley. Northern San Joaquin Valley locations may see some precipitation overnight, with a slight chance spreading northward across the area late Monday. Some mountain thunderstorms may linger through Tuesday. Dry and relatively cool weather expected from mid-week on.
- Fire Weather Watch in effect from Tuesday afternoon through Tuesday evening for areas in Siskiyou and Modoc Counties.

Active Weather Warnings, Watches and Advisories by County:

http://www.wrh.noaa.gov/sto/brief/wwa_bc_cal.php

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

Increasing moisture will lead to isolated showers or thunderstorms over interior Mendocino and southern Trinity counties this afternoon. Better chances for showers and thunderstorms are expected Monday afternoon over the interior mountains. Mostly dry conditions are anticipated for the rest of the upcoming week.

Medford Weather:

Today will feature one more round of warm temperatures across inland portions with readings expected to peak this afternoon about 5 degrees above normal values.

Reno Weather:

Low pressure off the California coast continues to pull moisture north into the Eastern Sierras. Rain showers are likely through Tuesday. Localized flash flooding will be possible on Tuesday with thunderstorms posing a severe threat by Wednesday. By Thursday southwest flow will bring a drying trend for the remainder of the week.

San Francisco Weather:

Warm and humid weather will continue today. Tropical moisture from Dolores remains over central and southern California which means a continued chance of showers and thunderstorms through tonight. Precipitation chances will be greater the further south. Dry weather will return on Tuesday along with cooler conditions near the coast. Dry and mild weather is then forecast for the remainder of the week and into the weekend.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY:

Sacramento Weather:

Near normal temperatures continue today, with gradual cooling later this week. Remnants from Dolores will bring a chance of showers and thunderstorms through Tuesday.

Hanford Weather:

Tropical moisture will continue flowing from the south through the remainder of today. As a result, there will remain a chance of showers and thunderstorms through this evening. A drying trend and a return to summer like temperatures is expected by mid-week as the tropical moisture gets pushed out.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

Moisture from Tropical Storm Dolores will bring warm and humid conditions today along with plenty of clouds and scattered thunderstorms. Less humid conditions will return by mid-week as the tropical air mass moves east with temperatures near seasonal norms through the end of the week.

Extreme Southwestern California including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

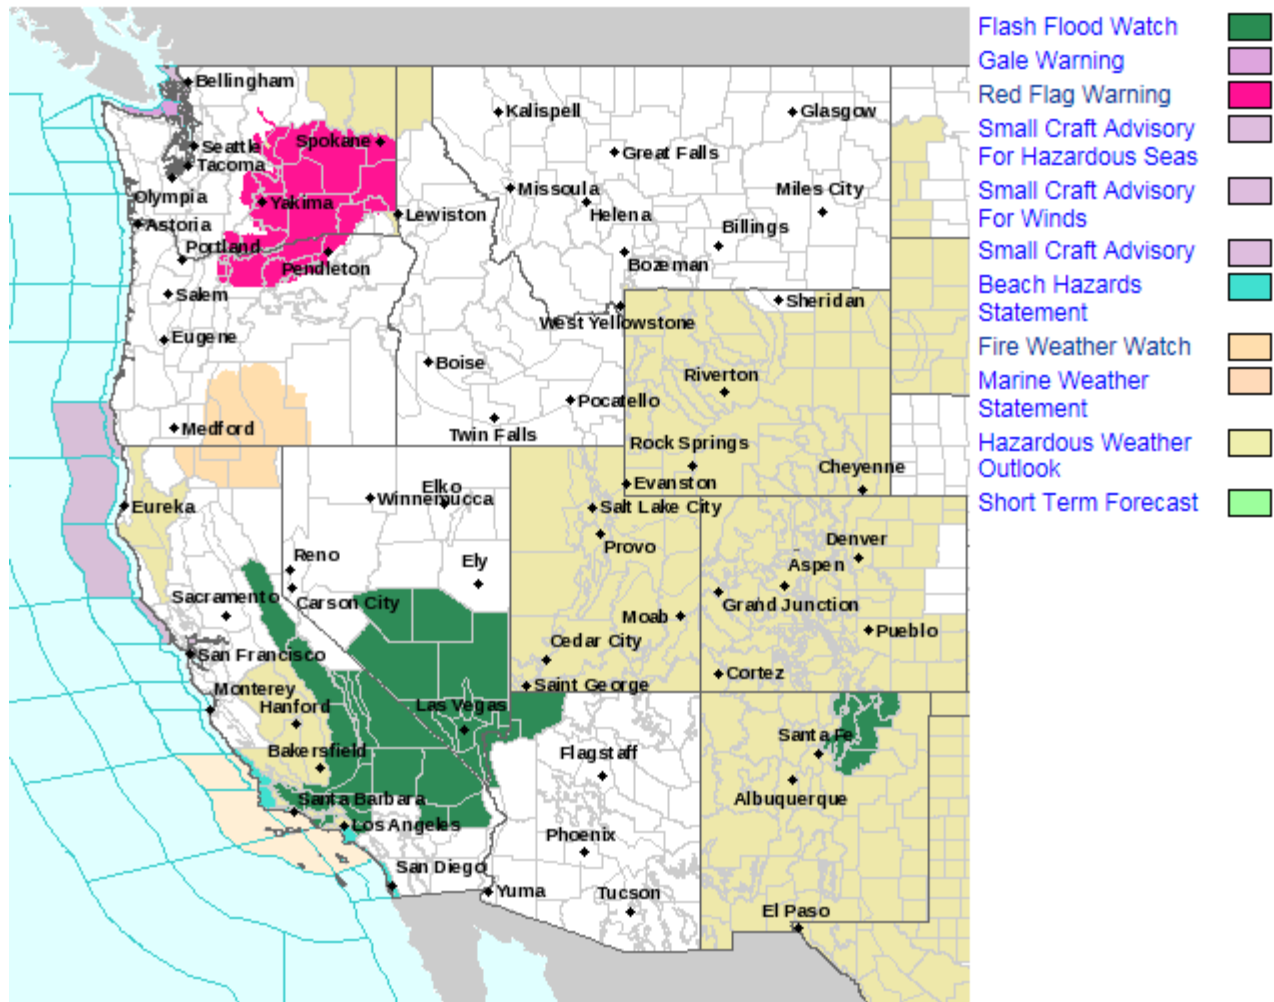

Scattered showers and isolated thunderstorms will decrease from the south early this morning. There is a chance of thunderstorms for this afternoon, mainly over the mountains and upper deserts. There is a slight chance of thunderstorms Tuesday afternoon for the mountains of San Bernardino and Riverside counties. Moisture from the remnants of Former Hurricane Dolores will decrease the next few days with high temperatures remaining a little below average for inland and a little above average for coastal areas.

Southeast California Weather:

A gradual drying and warming trend will commence today across southeast California with only a few mountain showers and thunderstorms expected. Along with the drier air will come elevated temperatures with highs approaching the 110 degree mark for the lower deserts by the weekend. with cooler conditions near the coast. Dry and mild weather is then forecast for the remainder of the week and into the weekend.
